A large, modern lecture hall with a curved front. A woman in a blue shirt and black pants stands on the left, gesturing towards a whiteboard. The room is filled with students sitting in rows of blue chairs, many with laptops open. The ceiling has many recessed lights, and the walls are light-colored with horizontal panels. An "EXIT" sign is visible on the wall.

“I have three weeks wonderful life in UCI. I think I have taken advantage of every minute to experience the living style in America and make preparation for my future study in America. I have two English classes: Research Methodology and Presentation Skills. I also finished two elective classes, Biology of Traditional Medicine and Designing and Integrating IoT Devices. Additionally, I observed some other classes like General Microbiology, Calculus, and Human Physiology class. They help enlarge my horizon. I also took part in the activities on weekend. I went to see Shakespeare’s drama and met a new friend who works in UCI’s Radio----KUCI. I think I gained a lot in UCI EUR program.”
