NUS Enterprise Summer Programme in Entrepreneurship

06 - 17 July 2020

This two-week programme at the National University of Singapore offers students a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to learn the fundamentals of Singapore's success as one of the world's most competitive economies, from its humble beginnings as a trading port.

Students will learn the mechanics behind Singapore's public policy and economic development, immerse in lean startup methodology, new venture creation process, gain insights into entrepreneurship development and exposure to the startup ecosystem in Singapore and the Southeast Asia region.

Through a combination of lectures, ideation and pitching sessions, conversations with start-up founders and visits to business and government organisations, the NUS Enterprise Summer Programme provides you with an enriching learning experience. You will also get to interact with local students in this dynamic multi-cultural metropolis city.
